MINISTER OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS CONGRATULATES AMBASSADOR JIMOH IBRAHIM ON HIS ELECTION AS CHAIRMAN OF THE UNITED NATIONS BUDGET AND ADMINISTRATION COMMITTEE

The Honourable Minister of Foreign Affairs, Ambassador Bianca Odumegwu-Ojukwu, heartily congratulates Ambassador Jimoh Ibrahim on his election as Chairman of the United Nations Budget and Administration Committee, a significant achievement that reflects Nigeria's growing stature and active engagement within the multilateral system. The election of the Nigerian Permanent Representative to the UN to this important position is a testament of the confidence reposed in Nigeria by the international community to contribute meaningfully to the effective management and administration of the affairs of the global institution.

The Ministry welcomes this development and considers it a recognition of the country's longstanding commitment to multilateralism, international cooperation, and constructive engagement in global governance. Nigeria remains dedicated to supporting initiatives aimed at enhancing the efficiency, transparency, accountability, and effectiveness of the United Nations system. The Honourable Minister expresses confidence that he will bring his extensive expertise and distinguished record of service to bear in the discharge of his responsibilities and wishes him a successful tenure as Chairman of the Committee.

The Ministry of Foreign Affairs reaffirms Nigeria's commitment to working closely with Member States and the United Nations to advance shared goals of peace, sustainable development, and international cooperation.
