NIGERIA CONGRATULATES THE REPUBLIC OF MALAWI ON ITS INDEPENDENCE ANNIVERSARY

The Honourable Minister of Foreign Affairs, Ambassador Bianca Odumegwu-Ojukwu extends warm congratulations to Honourable Nancy Tembo, Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Malawi, as the nation commemorates its Independence Anniversary.

This significant milestone reflects the resilience, unity, and enduring spirit of the Malawian people in their pursuit of sovereignty, peace, and sustainable development. Nigeria joins Malawi in celebrating this historic occasion, highlighting the shared commitment to freedom, democratic values, and regional stability.

Nigeria and Malawi enjoy cordial bilateral relations, strengthened through cooperation in areas such as trade, agriculture, education, capacity building, and multilateral engagements. Both countries continue to collaborate within the African Union, the United Nations, and other international platforms to promote peace, security, and sustainable development across the African continent and beyond.

On this auspicious occasion, Nigeria reaffirms its commitment to further strengthening bilateral relations with Malawi, exploring new avenues of cooperation, and enhancing people-to-people exchanges for the mutual benefit of both nations.

Once again, Nigeria conveys her warmest felicitations to the Government and people of the Republic of Malawi, with best wishes for continued peace, prosperity, and national progress.

Signed:
