NIGERIA CONGRATULATES THE REPUBLIC OF CHAD ON ITS INDEPENDENCE ANNIVERSARY

The Government of Nigeria extends its warmest congratulations to the Government and the people of the Republic of Chad on the joyous occasion of the country's Independence Anniversary.

Nigeria and Chad share deep historical and cultural ties, as well as strong bonds of friendship, good neighbourliness, and cooperation. As neighbouring countries and fellow members of the African community, we value our enduring partnership and shared commitment to peace, stability, and development.

On this significant milestone, Nigeria commends Chad's resilience and its continued efforts towards national development, peace, and stability. Nigeria remains committed to strengthening bilateral relations with Chad, particularly in the areas of trade, security, education, and regional cooperation, for the mutual benefit of our peoples.

Therefore, on the auspicious occasion of Chad's Independence Anniversary, Nigeria joins the Government and people of Chad in celebrating this important milestone in the spirit of friendship, unity, and solidarity. We look forward to deeper collaboration in regional and international fora, including the African Union and the United Nations, to advance our shared goals of peace, prosperity, and sustainable development.

Once again, Nigeria extends its heartfelt congratulations to the Republic of Chad, and wishes the nation continued progress, peace and prosperity as the enduring spirit of independence continue to inspire its people and national development.

Signed:
