NIGERIA CONGRATULATES ALGERIA ON HER NATIONAL DAY

The Federal Government of Nigeria warmly congratulates the Government and people of the People's Democratic Republic of Algeria on the occasion of their National Day.

On this historic occasion, Nigeria joins the people of Algeria in commemorating the nation's rich history, enduring resilience and the sacrifices of the heroes who fought for its freedom. Nigeria recognises this important milestone as a testament to Algerian people's unwavering spirit of unity, patriotism, and national solidarity as well as their collective determination to build a peaceful, prosperous and progressive nation.

Nigeria and Algeria enjoy cordial and longstanding bilateral relations, founded on mutual respect, shared interests and common commitment to African unity economic integration and sustainable development. Both countries also close cooperation at multilateral fora, particularly within the African Union and The United Nations, where they continue to work together in promoting international peace and security, strengthening multilateralism and addressing contemporary global challenges.

The Federal Government of Nigeria reaffirms its commitment to deepening the longstanding bonds of friendship and cooperation between both countries through sustained diplomatic engagement, enhanced institutional collaboration, and increased people-to-people exchanges and mutually beneficial partnerships. Nigeria looks forward to further consolidating existing areas of cooperation while exploring new opportunities in sectors of mutual interest for the benefit of both countries and their people.

On this auspicious occasion, the Federal Government of Nigeria wishes the Government and people of the People's Democratic Republic of Algeria continued peace, stability, progress and prosperity.
